(e) Directed to contract for the printing and temporary binding of an unannotated preliminary edition of the said revised, compiled and consolidated statutes, in sufficient number of copies for distribution, before enactment, to the members of the legislature (Sec. 2);

(h) Directed, when submitting the preliminary edition to the legislature to call the attention of the legislature to:

(1) All changes made in substance in the text of any statute;

(2) All general statutes, or parts thereof, in effect, of a permanent nature, omitted from the revision and the reasons for their omission;

(m) Directed, through the staff employed as aforesaid, to make research of the legislative matters, at the request of members of the Legislature, and to aid such members in the drafting of proposed legislation (Sec. 7).

COMPLIANCE UNDER CHAPTER 19140.

(A) Compliance to Date:

After the adoption of Chapter 19140, laws of Florida, Acts of 1939, the Attorney General employed skilled assistants for the purpose of performing the duties imposed upon him by the said act, and set about to formulate a definite plan for a revision, compilation and consolidation of the general statutory law of Florida in force, of a permanent nature, and for the order, classification and arrangement of said statutes. In formulating this plan two assistant attorneys general were sent to Madison, Wisconsin, and to Frankfort, Kentucky, to look over the statute revision plants of those states and statute revision in Minnesota and other states were studied. Recent statutes from many of the states were inspected and studied and the classification of the laws in said statutes given careful consideration.

After inspecting the revisions plants and studying the existing statutes of many states as aforesaid it was decided to divide the Florida Statutes, 1941, into 47 titles, which divisions will fully appear by reference to the Analysis of the said Florida Statutes, 1941, appearing in the front thereof. Each of said titles have been divided into chapters, and each chapter into sections. No other general divisions have been made.

The decimal system of numbering has been used in the revision. Under the decimal system the chapters and sections thereof are numbered and designated in accordance with a decimal point, the figures preceding the decimal point indicating the chapter number, and those following it indicating the section number.

The said revision, compilation and consolidation has been at this stage prepared, in one volume, without index, hereafter referred to as preliminary Volume I; together with histories and revision notes thereto, in one small volume, hereafter referred to as preliminary Volume II; which two volumes are submitted herewith, each of which is a preliminary edition.

Recommendation is hereafter made that the statutory contents of Volume I aforesaid, be adopted and enacted by the 1941 Legislature as the Statutory law of Florida.

In preliminary Volume II, aforesaid, in addition to History and Revision notes, there is compiled a table showing where sections in the Compiled General Laws, and sections in the Revised General Statutes may be found in preliminary Volume I aforesaid, and three Population Tables, as follows:

1. Population Table A, containing Population Acts from 1919 to 1939, arranged in order of their increasing population.

2. Population Table B, containing the census figures from 1915 to 1940 of the population of Florida Counties, arranged alphabetically.

3. Population Table C, a table giving the population of the several counties at the five census taking periods, 1920, 1925-1930-1935 and 1940.

(B) Program for Completing Compliance:

In the revision made by preliminary Volume I, aforesaid the following general subjects were not completely revised, compiled and consolidated, there being in each case substantial reason for such omission:

1. Ad Valorem Tax Laws on Real Property and Tangible Personal Property.

(Not knowing that the proposed Constitutional Amendment abolishing ad valorem state tax, would be adopted, Revision when started, could not anticipate one way or the other the popular referendum on this proposal).

2. Constructive Service Laws.

(Revisors did not believe ample authority existed in provisions of Chapter 19140 to warrant the revision of the Constructive Service Laws as far as sound legislation and complete revision required, therefore the only way for accomplishing same was by separate, independent legislative amendatory enactment).

3. Eminent Domain.

(Reason for not revision same with balance of revision work being the same as in 2 above).

4. Organization of Profit Corporation. (Same as 2 and 3 above).

5. Taxation of Public Utilities.

(Revisors did not believe authority existed under Chapter 19140 for extending revision on this subject to pipe lines, telephone companies, power companies and bus lines).

With respect to each of the subject matters above listed, as omitted from the preliminary revision, compilation and consolidation, revisionary Acts have been drawn for introduction during the 1941 session of the Legislature, and our information concerning the status of these respective Acts at the present time is as follows:

1. The Ad Valorem Tax separate bill is attached hereto as a part of this report as proposed for introduction in the present Legislature. It has been approved by the Clerks' Association of the State, and gone over by representatives from Tax Collectors and Tax Assessors of the State, and has been submitted to the Brookings Institute Committee, acting with reference to tax legislation, and some of the suggestions of this Committee have been embodied in it.

2. The Constructive Service revision law has been introduced in the present session, passed by the Senate, and is known as Senate Bill No. 256.

3 The Eminent Domain proposal has been introduced in the present session of the Legislature, and is known as House Bill No. 596.

4. The organization of profit corporation revision proposal has been prepared.

5. Taxation of public utilities, revision proposal has been prepared and submitted to the Governor where it is now ready for introduction at this Session of the Legislature, if desired.

It is proposed that the Volume I, aforesaid, will contain, when completed:

1. The completed revision, compilation and consolidation of all Statutes of a general nature of Florida, including those enacted at the 1941 Session of the Legislature.

2. The Constitution of the State of Florida.

3. The Constitution of the United States.

4. The unannotated rules of practice in Florida Courts.

5. Indexes to each of the above.

It is proposed that the Volume II, aforesaid, will contain, when completed:

1. The annotations to the Statutes.

2. History and revision notes to the Statutes.

3. The Constitution of the United States and Constitution of the State of Florida, together with annotations.

4. Rules of practice in Florida courts with annotations.

5. Tables as follows:

(1) C. G. L. and R. G. S. Statute identification with 1941 Revision Statutes.

(2) Table identifying 1941 enactments in 1941 revision.

(3) All rules of practice for Florida courts, with annotation and cross-reference identifications through 1941 legislation.

(4) Population Act Tables.

1920 STATUTES A BASIS

The last revision of the Statutory Laws of Florida was prepared prior to and submitted to the 1919 Session of the Legislature of Florida, at which Session it was enacted as the Revised General Statutes of Florida and became effective in 1920. In preparing the revision, compilation and consolidation submitted herewith, the Attorney General used the Revised General Statutes of Florida, 1920, as the basis for the revision. Although the said Revised General Statutes of Florida, 1920, was enacted at the 1919 Session of the Legislature, it did not contain all the laws of a general nature enacted at that Session, because of which it was necessary to read and examine the Session laws of 1919 and all subsequent Session laws to and including 1939. The Special and Local Acts for the same years were searched for any laws of a general nature that may have been published therein through mistake.

PREPARATION OF THE REVISION

In preparing the Florida Statutes, 1941, and in revising, compiling and consolidating the laws therefor:

(a) The following classes of laws have been omitted:

(1) Unnecessary sections and laws, such as repeals, preambles, separability, construction, effective late sections and laws of limited or special application, the inclusion of which would have been impracticable or undesirable;

(2) Private, special and local Acts;

(3) Acts based on population where application is limited to small number of counties;

(4) Obsolete and obsolescent sections and laws;

(5) Duplications; and

(6) Acts, sections and parts of sections held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Florida or of the United States.

(b) All general statutes of such limited or local application as to make their inclusion impracticable or undesirable, were omitted, however appropriate cross references were made to such omitted statutes. All statutes applicable to counties between stated populations or statutes based upon population and applying to only one, two or three counties, without any immediate prospects of applying to other counties, were omitted however, tables of population acts have been prepared which make reference to such Acts in numerical order of populations. These tables appear now in the back of the Preliminary Edition No. 2, aforesaid. Appropriate cross references have been made in the Statutes to these tables.

(c) The following matters and things are shown by the revision notes published in the volume of Preliminary Edition No. 2, aforesaid, which revision notes call the attention of the legislature to:

(1) All changes in substance made in the text of any statute;

(2) All general statutes, or parts thereof, in effect, of a permanent nature, omitted from the revision, and the reasons for their omission;

(3) All statutes consolidated with other statutes and laws;

(4) All new matter added to the revision, and the reasons therefor;

(5) The manner in which conflicting statutes have been reconciled in the revision.

The foregoing program for completion does not deal with any part of our program to be recommended, for the Legislative Bureau apparently contemplated under Chapter 19140 as a part of continued statutory revision.

In submitting the contract for the printing of the preliminary edition of the Florida Statutes, 1941, bids were received for the printing of the permanent edition in accordance with Section 2 of Chapter 19140, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1939. However, the Attorney General found that it was impracticable to contract for the binding and printing of the permanent edition at that time, and no such bids were accepted.

It is provided in the contract with the printer, for printing the preliminary edition, that all type used in such printing shall become property of the State of Florida for such further uses as may appear desirable.

New contract will and must be made for the permanent complete volumes of this revision work, "Florida Statutes 1941."

There are only about six printers in Florida equipped to handle this job. If we were authorized to get bids outside of the State for this permanent work, its costs might be reducible substantially. Under the present law we cannot accept out of State bids in contracting for this printing.

UNOFFICIAL RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE BAR

After the printing of the preliminary edition of the said Florida Statutes, 1941, the Attorney General associated and called a meeting of a representative group of the Bar of the State of Florida to consider the said revision and to make recommendations concerning the same. At said meeting the said group recommended that the said statutes and the annotations thereto be published in separate volumes as follows:

(a) That the statutes and index, together with unannotated copies of the United States Constitution, and the Constitution of Florida, with indexes, and the Florida Rules of Court, indexed, be published in one volume; and,

(b) That the annotations, annotated copies of the United States Constitution, and the Constitution of Florida, with indexes and the Florida Court Rules with index, and all tables be published in the other volume.

We propose for approval of the Legislature a permanent Volume III to consist of an index to all special laws, enacted by the Florida Legislature at any time up to and including the 1941 session.

The Federal Government has authorized, and is now proceeding with an indexing project of these laws, beginning in 1885 and bring them down to and including the 1941 session of the Legislature.

We would like our program for the future to include a continuation of this indexing and identification.

The Federal project, as authorized, can only be protected in its permanent value by such continuation.

We offer also, as a part of permanent Volume II, aforesaid, a table showing the list of laws which have been repealed or superseded in the revision, compilation and consolidation, and omitted from the 1941 work, if the Legislature desires same. In our opinion this will not be essential.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Pursuant to the above and foregoing report the Attorney General recommends:

(a) That the Florida Statutes, 1941, submitted herewith, be adopted and enacted when completed, as the statutory law of Florida, under the title of "Florida Statutes, 1941";

(b) That the general laws of the 1941 session of the Legislature be incorporated into the said Florida Statutes, 1941, as soon after the adjournment of the Legislature as may be convenient.

(c) That, in addition to the statutes contained in the preliminary edition of the Florida Statutes, 1941, submitted herewith, that the permanent edition contain the index to said statutes, the general laws enacted at the 1941 session of the Legislature that are of general operation throughout the State, unannotated copies of the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of Florida, unannotated copies of the Rules of Court adopted by the Florida Supreme Court;

(d) That, in editing and preparing the permanent edition of the statutes for printing, the Attorney General be authorized and permitted to make corrections of typographical errors and make uniform the method of numbering subsections and divisions under subsections and to correct other manifest errors.

(e) That the type and plates used in printing the statutes be owned and kept by the State for future use and for use in printing pamphlets of Department, or subject laws.

(f) That the permanent edition of the statutes be printed in type, style and size similar to the preliminary edition;

(g) That annotations be prepared for the statutes and printed in a separate volume and that cumulative annotations be prepared, from time to time, and published in pamphlet or pocket part form;

(h) That the statutes and annotations, as published, be copyrighted on behalf of the State of Florida.

(i) That for the present the program of continued revision be planned with a view that the session laws of a general nature be published for the 1943 session in the form of a pocket edition, to be inserted in the back of Volume I, carrying a numbering identification in conformity with that contained in said Volume I.

(j) That Volume II be likewise continued for all additional matter accruing during the 1941-1943, two year interim, belonging to it by insertion through pocket supplement.

(k) That the joint legislative Statutory Revision Committee of this Legislature be continued throughout their present terms of office for advice and conference to and with the Attorney General in the completion of the program here outlined and proffered with proper provision to be made for this participation on the part of said Committee.

(1) That revision of the present revision and the establishment of a Legislative Reference Library may be authorized in conjunction with the continuance of the 1941 revision.

(m) When the joint legislative statutory revision committee of this Legislature, continued as aforesaid, and the Attorney General approves the permanent edition of the Florida Statutes, 1941, as complete, that the same be certified by them to the Governor who shall then issue his proclamation, and that the statutes become effective thirty days after the issuance of said proclamation.

CONCLUSION

I am not presenting any proposed legislative provision for the adoption of the Statutory Revision here reported, but will have a proposed draft therefor ready for submission to the Joint Legislative Committee for its consideration at its first meeting for receiving and considering this report.

The Legislature's special attention and consideration is, by express provision of Section 3 of Chapter 19140, in conclusion directed to the contents of Volume II of the preliminary edition now before it, making up the revision, in which there is pointed out:

(1) All changes made in substance in the text of any statute;

(2) All general statutes, or parts thereof, in effect, of a permanent nature, omitted from the revision and the reasons for their omission;

(3) All statutes consolidated with other statutes;

(4) All new matter added to the revision, and the reasons therefore;

(5) The manner in which conflicting statutes have been reconciled.

Respectfully submitted,

J. TOM WATSON,

Attorney General.

The foregoing communication from the Attorney General was referred to the Committee on Statutory Revision.

Was taken up, having been read the second time in full on May 12, 1941, together with the following amendment offered by Senator Beall to House Bill No. 510, which was pending consideration at the hour of recess:

Amendment No. 1:

In Section One, Lines 14 and 15 (typewritten bill) strike out the words "and pay such annual fees as shall be fixed or approved by said Supreme Court," and also all of Section 1-A.

Senator Beall having moved the adoption of the foregoing amendment, the question was put on the adoption thereof.

Pending consideration of the amendment offered by Senator Beall to House Bill No. 510. Senator Dye moved that the rules be waived and the hour of adjournment be extended until such time as final disposition is made of House Bill No. 510.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and it was so ordered.

The question recurred on the adoption of the amendment offered by Senator Beall to House Bill No. 510.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon call of the roll on the adoption of the amendment offered by Senator Beall to House Bill No. 510, the roll was called and the vote was:

Nays—Senators Adams (30th), Collins, Cooley, Drummond, Folks, Graham, Kanner, Kelly, King, Maddox, McKenzie, Rose, Shepherd, Taylor, Ward, Wilson—16.

So the amendment was adopted.

Senator Cooley moved that the rules be waived and the further consideration of House Bill No. 510, as amended, be informally passed.

Which was not agreed to.

Senator Beall also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 510:

In Section One, Line 14, (typewritten bill), strike out the words: "in good standing".

Senator Beall moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was not agreed to so the amendment failed of adoption.

Senator Beall also offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 510:

In Section 1, line 12, (typewritten bill) strike out the words: "to require", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "permit."

Which was not agreed to so the motion to adjourn failed of adoption.

And House Bill No. 510, as amended, was read the third time in full.

Pending roll call on House Bill No. 510, as amended, Senator Dye moved that the rules be waived and when the Senate adjourns at the morning session tomorrow, May 15, 1941, it recess to reconvene at 3:00 o'clock P. M., for a two-hour session.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In connection with the various votes on House Bill No. 510, I wish the Journal to show that I was in favor of and supported this bill in its original form without amendment. Senator Whitaker moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now consider his motion to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 510 failed to pass the Senate this day.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

Whereupon the President put the question on the motion

May 14, 1941

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon call of the roll on the motion made by Senator Whitaker to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 510 failed to pass the Senate today the vote was:
